Count Up to a One Dollar Word. Celebrate the 100th day of school by counting and spelling your way to a "$1.00" word in this 3rd grade math and reading game. 3rd grade. Activity. In this activity, your child will make her own book of Swahili numbers filled with pictures of animals found throughout Africa. 1st grade. Social studies. Help your child improve his coin counting skills in these two math games that have him race to reach $1.00. 3rd grade. (TEFL) with classroom instructional activities that reinforce vocabulary or teach specific language skills (listening, speaking, reading, writing) while demonstrating that communicating in English can be fun. The activities are brief and self-contained, and an audiotape cassette (not included) is designed for use with the last four sections of the book. Each section focuses on a different type of activity: word games; crossword puzzles; idioms; limericks; jokes and riddles; puzzle stories; shaggy dog stories; and folk wisdom. The accompanying cassette is to be used with the last four sections of the book that are dedicated to listening comprehension activities and discussion. The following activities build upon a common base of letters to create new words. The "ANT" family. 11. A word wall is a collection of words which are displayed in large visible letters on a wall, bulletin board, or other display surface in a classroom. The word wall is designed to be an interactive tool for students and contains an array of words that can be used during writing and reading. They provide reference support for children during reading and writing activities. How to use word walls. Make words accessible by putting them where every student can see them. They should be written in large black letters using a variety of background colors to distinguish easily confused words. Teachers and students should work together to determine which words should go on the word wall. Try to include words that children use most commonly in their writing.
