

Target JFK: The Spy Who Killed Kennedy? / 2016 / 9781621575535 / Robert K. Wilcox / Simon and Schuster, 2016 / 356 pages

The shocking new book "Target: JFK, The Spy Who Killed Kennedy?" reveals page-after-page of incredible, never-before-reported evidence that a mysterious Argentinian with a stranger-than-fiction life story is the missing link in the assassination mystery that has puzzled America for half a century. Related Topics: John F. Kennedy, Assassinations. Comment. Show comments Hide Comments. Log In with your RCMG Account Register. Sign up for RC newsletters. ©2019 RealClearHistory | Go to full site. A COLD War spy and has claimed John F Kennedy assassination was partly organised by a Cuban double agent. The diaries of Douglas DeWitt Bazata, a decorated officer for the United States Office of Strategic services, claim his closed friend Rene Alexander Dussaq was a "primary organiser and plotter" of the killing. The claims have been made in an explosive new book by Robert K Wilcox called "Target: JFK, The Spy Who Killed Kennedy?" He writes: "Douglas Bazata was deeply embedded in the world of secrets, especially those surrounding JFK's death. "He was there at the birth of the CIA as an early and major player in that murkiest of worlds. Doctor Who Hardback Fiction Books. Diana Kennedy Food & Drink Cookbook Hardback Non-Fiction Books in English. Hardback Books Nora Roberts HarperCollins. Hardback Philip K. Dick Books. Learn about the JFK theories and who killed John F. Kennedy. If you were to gather all of the reports, books, articles, editorials, films and television specials about the JFK assassination in one place, you'd have enough material to fill a library. Every year, more books about the event hit store shelves. Forensics experts continue to review every shred of evidence in an effort to determine what happened on that day. Advertisement. We do know that Kennedy nostalgia and scrutiny are in overdrive on the eve of the 50th anniversary of his murder, with dozens of new books advancing theories novel and dusty over who fired the fatal shots at the motorcade in Dallas. Options include Fidel Castro, the mafia, the CIA, J Edgar Hoover, Lyndon Johnson, the secret service or, on the far outer fringes of speculation, Joe DiMaggio. "Baby boomers are big book buyers and JFK was the baby boomers' president." Fascination will wane as Kennedy becomes more a historical than mythical figure, he predicted, but for now publishers were mining every conceivable angle. "There are so many out there, consumers have a lot to choose from.