Now for the first time ever, the Cat in the Hat appears in a silly, Seussian flap book, which offers loads of learning and lots of laughs and is packed with over 50 seek-and-find flaps that help teach basic concepts such as colors, numbers, letters, shapes, and opposites! Inspired by five all-time best-selling Beginner Books®, this Seussian tour de flap includes: * Counting with the Cat in the Hat himself, from 1 fish to 20 Zeds (with hair on their heads!) * Animal sounds, courtesy of Mr. Brown (Yes, he can moo! Lift the flap and you'll moo, too!) * Rhyming games and wordplay inspired by Flapping Great Benefits and Value from Five Dr. Seuss Books! Published by Thriftbooks.com User , 19 years ago. This book is probably the best value and choice for children under 3 among the Dr. Seuss offerings. This book draws on five of the best Dr. Seuss books for young learners in abridged and more interactive fashion to make it exciting and interesting to very young children. The first two page spread is from The Cat in the Hat and covers all the numbers up to 20. Each flap has a number of Seussian animals or objects behind it. The order of the numbers is scrambled across the two pages so your child can also learn to look for numbers in order, as a way of reinforcing counting skills. This book has so many flaps! My kids enjoy this book, but I would save it for a child that is at least 2 or older. I got it for my 1 year old, who doesn't have enough patience to go through the flaps, and my 4 year old actually doesn't care for it too much because it doesn't catch his attention.
