AVAILABLE NOW This limited edition print titled "PUSS IN HEELS" is a recreation of an artwork originally created as part of an installation at the legendary London print house "POW" (Pictures On Walls) where in 2011 Anthony Lister held an exhibition and print release. During his artist in residence at the POW studio, Anthony received a private and confidential hand written letter from (the print house boss & fellow artist) BANKSY. Anthony Lister is an Australian artist notable for his pop-surrealist graffiti, paintings, and installations that embody a fusion of highbrow and lowbrow culture. Australia has a vibrant urban art scene that is driven by a number of internationally celebrated artists. One of the most influential contemporary artists hailing from the Oceanian country is Anthony Lister. He has gained a great critical acclaim for his outstanding pop-surrealist graffiti, paintings, and installations that embody a fusion of highbrow and lowbrow culture.
