The history of President Records, one of the first independent labels in the UK, is inextricably linked to that of music publisher Edward Kassner. Born in Austria to Jewish parents in 1920, Edward dreamed of becoming a composer but his orchestral aspirations were cut short when Hitler annexed Austria. "He was tipped off by his friends that they were rounding up Jewish boys," says David Kassner, Edward's eldest son and now MD of President. "He fled through Belgium and got caught trying to cross the border at Aachen twice. On the third occasion a German soldier caught him but let him go saying t Management and custody of Presidential records Â§ 2204. Restrictions on access to Presidential records Â§ 2205. President Records is one of the oldest names in the UK independent record business. The label group was founded over sixty years ago. It has been involved in the careers of a long list of famous artists, including Barry White, The Equals and Eddy Grant, George McCrae, K.C. and the Sunshine Band, Rick Wakeman. Recently adding recordings by rock'n'roller Dave Edmunds. In the Master Catalogue today are still it's own original hits such as Shout! Shout! (Knock Yourself Out) , Bobby's Girl , See You In September, Till. To which have been added through acquisition further hits such as Girls Talk, I President Records is a British independent record label. It is one of the oldest independent record companies in the UK, originally launched in 1957 by Edward Kassner. During the 1960s and 1970s the label, and its subsidiary Jay Boy, had hits with artists including the Equals, George McCrae and KC & the Sunshine Band, Paintbox, and later focused on releasing back-catalogue compilations as well as occasional new albums by artists such as Robots In Disguise. President Records remains part of the Kassner
