On the International Day of Happiness 2019- Enjoy this video made by the GNH Volunteers of Jigme Namgyel College of Engineering in celebration of the day! The students have been supporting the efforts of the Centre in promoting and advocating well- being, happiness and mindfulness. Gross national happiness (GNH) is a measure of economic and moral progress that the country of Bhutan introduced in the 1970s as an alternative to gross domestic product. The "four pillars" of GNH are good governance, sustainable development, preservation and promotion of culture, and environmental conservation. The Bhutanese government takes the four pillars of GNH into account when deciding to pass laws.
