Timothy Knapman / 2008 / 32 pages

Of course, Look What I Found in Dragon Wood is first and foremost simply a sweet and delightfully humorous "dragon" tale. It is also though, a story of acceptance and curiosity, and that friendship and being acquainted with strangers is not only possible and probable, but desirable. Children will relate as the dragons do many things that children do like going to school. Guess What I Found in Dragon Wood is a clever story. It took me a moment as I was distracted by my toddler while reading and laughed when I realized it wasn't the dragon that was found in the woods but rather a boy named Benjamin. It was a fun read out loud book. We enjoyed the illustrations and it kept my little ones attention.
