Basically, PERT, CPM are the 2 popular project management techniques, which have been created out of the need of Western industrial and military establishments to plan, schedule and control complex projects. Common Terms. To understand the whole concept of these techniques, we need to know some important terms that are used. PERT was devised in 1958 for the POLARIS missile program by the Program Evaluation Branch of the Special Projects office of the U.S.Navy, helped by the Lockheed Missile Systems division and the Consultant firm of Booz-Allen & Hamilton. Framework for PERT and CPM. Essentially, there are six steps which are common to both the techniques. The procedure is listed below PERT, CPM, and Gantt.
