Product description. Review. "[Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students] is by far the best text we have reviewed for our course on classroom reading instruction. Each chapter presents important information about literacy instruction in a manner that undergraduate students understand. It is comprehensive and informative." - Dr. Cindy Jones, Utah State University. From the Back Cover. "Creating Literacy Instruction for All Children in Grades 4 to 8" is the first book of its kind. Based on its highly successful parent text, this comprehensive, practical text provides its readers with step-by-step guidance for teaching children in grades 4 to 8 all major aspects of reading and writing. Reading Comprehension Instruction in Grades 4-8. North Central Regional Educational Lab., Oak Brook, IL. Office of Educational Research and Improvement (ED), Washington, DC. Many students can learn strategies indirectly through activities such as creating graphic organizers and K-W-L-H (what a student Knows, what a student Wants to learn, what a student Learned while reading, How a student can learn more) charts (Ogle, 1986), but others need explicit instruction to learn to use them effectively. Strategy Instruction for Students with Learning Disabilities The National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) found that 37 percent of all fourth graders were reading below the basic level (Donahue, Finnegan, Lutkus, Allen, & Campbell, 2001).
