The book starts off promising and it has a vast amount of information in it. However there are no footnotes or references and there is no index, which led me to purchase the e-book, which was even worse and I ended up returning it (see my review of e-book). Volume 2 is all a list of treaties, again not specific to Illinois. A great disappointment and I would not recommend buying this book and probably not any others in this series. Read more.
