Welcome to dairy barn! For over 40 years, people have relied on the drive-through convenience of our famous red barns. From dairy to snacks, baked goods, cigarettes, beverages and a whole lot more, we make life a little easier! Enjoy your visit and thanks for stopping by! Dairy Barn was a chain of regional convenience stores located on Long Island, New York, with headquarters in Elwood, New York. The stores were distinguished by their drive-through feature and their red barn appearance with little red silo. The peak number of operating Dairy Barn stores was approximately 70.[1][2] Although as of 2019 the corporate website is extant and lists five remaining store locations,[3] the last Dairy Barn closed in 2014.[4].
