I had borrowed an older edition of the Explorer's Guide to Maine from the public library and it was excellent, just full of good information. I was excited to see this version which focused on the area we were going to visit. But I was woefully disappointed. This is a great introductory guide to the Maine Coast & Islands. But why is it called "Explorer's Guide?" I read the previous review and understand the writer's frustration. Maine, An Explorer's Guide, offers all the detail about the coast & islands that anyone could want. I have it, use it often, and I reviewed it here on Amazon. I bought Maine Coast and Islands to give to friends who were visiting Maine for the first time, and they loved it. Read more. One person found this helpful.
