

The Complete English Poems, 1983, Penguin Books, 1983, 9780140422337, John Skelton, 573 pages

Penguin english poets. General editor: christopher ricks. George herbert: the complete english poems. GEORGE HERBERT was born in 1593, the fifth son of Richard Herbert of Montgomery and Magdalene Herbert, to whom John Donne dedicated his elegy "Autumnal Beauty". He was educated at Westminster School and Trinity College, Cambridge, where he was appointed Reader in Rhetoric in 1618 and Public Orator in 1620. The Complete English Poems. Edited by JOHN TOBIN. PENGUIN BOOKS. I dedicate this book to Dr. R. Lane of the University of Durham for sharing with me his great expertise and for his encouragement, to my wife, Viv, and stepsons, Richard and Matthew, for being so patient, to a warm and good person, Julian Marko, who died on February 28th. 1994, for his genuine friendship, and to my father, Hugh, for many reasons. A freelance teacher in the north east of England, having taught myself Russian I graduated from the University of Durham in 1972 with first class honours, following this with doctoral research in the work of Tyutchev, supervised by R. Lane. The research was never completed and I returned to it some four years ago, one result being this book. The Complete English Poems (Penguin Classics) and millions of other books are available for Amazon Kindle. Learn more. Books. This is about the Everyman's Hardcover book. I have five or six versions of Donne's English poetry with me; all of these are supplemented by essays and emendations, but this version is simply the best of all. This is because the editor has avoided too much elaboration, and has consulted all the sources to give us alternate versions wherever relevant. He has done all the work for us. What he leaves us is the best Donne (for those who have a taste for his poetry and prose). The works are suitably organized into sonnets, love poems, elegies, and epigrams.