Problem: It's the wrong book It's the wrong edition Other. As the first English-language book dedicated to Japanese graffiti, "Graffiti Japan" is an obvious choice for a paperback edition, featuring all the same great photographs and artist interviews with KRESS, BELX2, FATE, TENGA, EMAR, SUIKO, QP, and many more. The graffiti featured in "Graffiti Japan" replicates the calligraphic intricacies of the Japanese language with spray paint, depicting how anime and manga characters, national pride, as well as foreign influences, are integral parts of the country's scene. No 3: Yellow : QR code Graffiti Japan painting made for Tokyo featuring my signature "R" LOGO in the centre. The third in the QR code Graffiti Japan Legacy series, which also was an ambient campaign to advertise my book of the same name. The book is available from me, on Amazon, Signed, Amazon Remography store :) But who ever grabs this NFT will also get the book, signed and delivered to them.
